WILSON CLINGS TO HOPE OF DEFEATING REPEAL

DECATUR, Ill., Sept. 20.—(AP)—There is still time for America to come to its senses and prevent prohibition repeal, said Dr. Clarence True Wilson, general secretary of the Methodist board of temperance, prohibition and public morals, in a local address. He urged a new drive by the drys to stem the wet parade and proposed sending a corps of 60 speakers into states that are yet to vote on the question of repeal.

"If repeal can be defeated in three of the seven states that are to vote within the next six weeks," he said, "decision on the proposition can be deferred until next year. Such a delay will give America time to come to its senses, to look about and see how it has been fooled."

THREE MEALS A DAY

KITCHEN TESTED RECIPES

by Sally Saver

Prize Recipe Contest

This week I have a very pleasant surprise for my readers, and take pleasure in announcing a new kind of contest which will be most interesting. There will be three prizes for the three best recipes submitted in accordance with the following rules:

Recipes must be addressed to Sally Saver, care The Constitution, and received not later than noon Thursday, September 28. Recipes may be for any dish with any one of Heinz's products. First prize will be a basket containing 24 full-size Heinz products. Second prize will be a basket containing 18 full-size Heinz products and third prize will be a basket of 12 full-size Heinz products.

In my column today I shall give you several recipes for party salads, lunch salads, salads for men and recipes including appetizers, canapés, hors d'oeuvres and sandwiches.

First on the list some new and enticing salads. Dressings for all recipes are given at the end of today's column.

ROMAINE SALAD.

Romaine is slightly coarser than lettuce but it may be just as crisp and tender and just as attractively served. Small heads of romaine are best. They have more delicate flavor and less waste. Long stalky leaves should be shredded. These shredded outside leaves can be saved for the next day's salad.

Prepare in the same way as lettuce and serve with one of these dressings: Chiffonade, Roquefort or French.

ENDIVE SALAD.

Endive makes a salad luxury especially nice for a company dinner. The French endive, the one we know best, has a pleasing, slightly acidic taste. Every leaf can be used and it is obtainable through most of the year.

Separate the stalks, wash and put in cold water. Excellent with Tarragon dressing. Strips of endive, green pepper or Heinz stuffed olives may be added.

WATERCRESS SALAD.

Watercress, whose dark green color and pungent flavor are so stimulating to the appetite, grows along the cool banks of streams. In some localities it may be wild, but in others it is cultivated. It requires care in cleaning because of its small leaves and many stems to which the sand clings.

Pick over cress, carefully cutting off coarse stems, and wash thoroughly. Chill in ice water and shake as dry as possible before serving. Toss lightly in salad bowl and serve with French dressing or Tarragon dressing.

ROMAINE AND ENDIVE SALAD. Separate leaves of romaine and endive, wash thoroughly and put in ice water to become crisp. Lay three or four stalks of endive lengthwise on a leaf of romaine. Garnish with strips of red or green pepper and serve with French dressing or Tarragon dressing.

For a more hearty salad mix equal quantities of chopped celery and chopped green pepper with a little mayonnaise to hold them together. Fill the stalks of endive with this mixture and lay on the romaine leaves. This may be served with French dressing or any desired variation.

STRING BEAN SALAD.

Two quarts young string beans, French dressing, 6 narrow rings of pimiento, Indian dressing.

Choose beans with smooth, slender pods. Bulging pods mean mature and usually tough beans. Wash and string the beans and cook them whole in boiling salted water until tender. Drain and cold. Marinate in French dressing. Chill thoroughly. Arrange in mounds on tender leaves of lettuce, holding them together with the pimiento rings. Serve with Indian dressing. Canned beans may be used.

CABBAGE AND PEANUT SALAD.

One small head of cabbage, 3-4 cup chopped peanuts, 1 teaspoon salt, 1-2 teaspoon paprika, 1 pimiento.

Discard outside leaves of cabbage and cut head in quarters. Let stand in ice water until crisp. Drain and chop. Mix with peanuts and add salt and paprika. Serve with cooked salad dressing or Heinz salad cream and garnish with strips of pimiento.

CUCUMBER BOAT SALAD.

Three cucumbers, 2 tomatoes, 1-2 cup chopped celery, 1 teaspoon salt, 1-2 teaspoon paprika, 1 tablespoon chopped onion.

Chill cucumbers and tomatoes. Peel cucumbers. Cut in halves lengthwise. Remove pulp from centers, being careful not to break the outside. Peel tomatoes, cut in cubes and drain off juice. Mix the cucumber pulp, tomatoes, celery, salt, pepper and onion and moisten with mayonnaise. Fill the cucumber halves with this mixture and arrange on crisp leaves of romaine or lettuce. Garnish with parsley. Serve with mayonnaise.

JULIENNE SALAD.

One green pepper, 2 cups shredded cabbage, 1 cup cooked carrots, 1-4 teaspoon salt.

Remove outside leaves from a small, firm head of cabbage. Cut in halves or quarters and slice very thin. Put in ice water until crisp. Drain and dry in towel. Remove seeds and partitions from pepper and cut in fine shreds. Cut cooked carrots into strips and marinate in French dressing. Mix one shredded pepper and one cup carrot strips with each two cups of shredded cabbage. Serve on leaves of lettuce or romaine or on one of the outer cabbage leaves, with Parisian or Piquante dressing.

TOMATO SANDWICH SALAD. Six tomatoes, 1 tablespoon chopped green pepper, 1 package cream cheese, 1-2 teaspoon finely chopped onion.

Put the tomatoes in boiling water for a moment to loosen the skins before peeling. Or sear each tomato on a long fork over range to crack open the skins before peeling. Peel and chill thoroughly. Cut in halves. Mash cheese to a paste with mayonnaise and mix with green pepper and onion. Put the cheese mixture between halves of tomatoes, sandwich fashion, and put sprigs of parsley into tops. Arrange on crisp lettuce leaves and serve with Spinosa dressing.

PIMIENTO OLIVE SALAD.

One-fourth cup Heinz ripe mission olives (chopped), 1-4 cup celery, 1-4 cup pimientos (chopped), 4 hard-cooked eggs (sliced), 2 tablespoons green pepper (chopped), 1-2 teaspoon salt, French dressing or mayonnaise.

Mix olives, pimientos, celery, peppers and salt. Arrange sliced eggs on lettuce and sprinkle with salt. Place a mound of the olives on top of eggs. Serve with French dressing or mayonnaise.

COUNTRY CLUB SALAD.

One cup cold cooked veal, 2 cups diced celery, 1 cup cold cooked ham, Heinz stuffed Spanish olives.

Cut ham and veal into small dice and add celery. Moisten with Chutney dressing one-half hour before serving. Chill and serve in beds of lettuce, garnishing with slices of olives.

SCALLOP SALAD.

Two cups cooked scallops, 2 tablespoons capers, 1-2 cup Heinz sandwich spread.

Cut scallops in halves and mix with the capers, French dressing and chill. Fold in sandwich spread. Arrange in nests of shredded cabbage and sprinkle with paprika. Garnish with cup-shaped lettuce leaves filled with mayonnaise. This will vary the monotony of the Lenten menu.

CRABMEAT SALAD.

Four cups crabmeat, 1-2 teaspoon paprika, 1-2 teaspoon salt.

Pick crabmeat over carefully to remove particles of shell. Add salt and paprika. Marinate in French dressing. Chill thoroughly. Arrange on bed of crisp lettuce leaves in salad bowl and spread with mayonnaise. Decorate top with strips of pimiento and capers. This salad may be varied by the addition of one cup of olives, cut in cubes. Canned crabmeat may be used.

JELLIED SUPPER SALAD.

Two tablespoons gelatin, 1-2 cups mixed vegetables (peas, carrots, string beans, etc.), 2 hard-cooked eggs, 1-4 cup Heinz stuffed Spanish olives (sliced), 1-4 cup cold water, sliced chicken, 2 cups chicken broth.

Soak gelatin in cold water five minutes and dissolve in hot chicken broth (canned broth may be used). Cool. Dip loaf pan in cold water and decorate bottom with slices of hard-cooked egg and sliced olives, cut in fancy shapes. Cover with a thin layer of chicken broth and let stiffen. Then arrange the chicken and vegetables in alternate layers, pouring a little broth over each layer and allowing it to stiffen before adding the next layer. Letting the pan stand in ice water will quicken the process. Chill thoroughly. Remove from mold and cut in fairly thick slices. Serve the individual portions in nests of crisp lettuce leaves with mayonnaise.

CHRISTMAS WREATH SALAD.

Six slices canned pineapple, 1-2 pound red grapes, 6 Marshchino cherries, 1-2 pound marshmallows, small can of peaches, 1 banana.

Using a sharp knife, cut the centers from rings of canned pineapple, so that the remaining ring is only 1-2 inch wide. Place this outside ring in a nest of crisp lettuce. Chop the center of the pineapple and add diced canned peaches, the banana (sliced), and marshmallows (cut in quarters). Moisten the fruit, using mayonnaise, and place a mound of the salad in the center of the ring of pineapple. Wash grapes, cut in halves and remove seeds. Place the halves of grapes closely together on the pineapple ring to represent holly berries. Complete the wreath by placing on it a bow made from a Marshchino cherry. Cut the cherry almost in half once, then turn and cut almost in half the other way. Spread out the sections of the cherry to form a bow. Place the bow on the wreath and serve. With this salad serve crisp cookies, macaroons, unfrosted angel food or sponge cake, or nut bread and cream cheese sandwiches. Delightful for Christmas-time parties.

ROYAL SALAD.

One large grapefruit, 2 pears, 2 oranges, 1 green pepper.

Peel the grapefruit and oranges, cutting as you would an apple, deep enough to remove the white skin underneath. Separate into sections, discarding the membrane. Peel the pears and cut into the same size pieces as the orange sections. Slice the green pepper very thin. Arrange the fruit alternately in boat-shaped leaves of romaine, decorating with strips of green pepper between the sections. Serve with mayonnaise. Canned grapefruit and canned pears may be used in this recipe.

FRUIT CUP SALAD—BANANA DRESSING.

One and one-half cups pineapple (diced), 1-2 cups Royal Ann cherries (seeded), 1 small banana, 1-2 teaspoon Heinz Pure Vinegar, 1-1-2 cups orange sections, 1-4 cup nut meats, 2 tablespoons confectioner's sugar, 1-2 cup mayonnaise.

Arrange three small cup-like leaves of lettuce on each salad plate. In one place pineapple, in another cherries and in the third orange. Any other three fruits may be substituted. Sprinkle with nuts, and garnish with banana salad dressing, made as follows: To mashed banana add sugar and vinegar. Fold this into mayonnaise. A few tablespoons of whipped cream may be added to produce a fluffy dressing.

COUNTRY CLUB SALAD.

One cup cold cooked veal, 2 cups diced celery, 1 cup cold cooked ham, Heinz stuffed Spanish olives.

Cut ham and veal into small dice and add celery. Moisten with Chutney dressing one-half hour before serving. Chill and serve in beds of lettuce, garnishing with slices of olives.

SCALLOP SALAD.

Two cups cooked scallops, 2 tablespoons capers, 1-2 cup Heinz sandwich spread.

Cut scallops in halves and mix with the capers, French dressing and chill. Fold in sandwich spread. Arrange in nests of shredded cabbage and sprinkle with paprika. Garnish with cup-shaped lettuce leaves filled with mayonnaise. This will vary the monotony of the Lenten menu.

CRABMEAT SALAD.

Four cups crabmeat, 1-2 teaspoon paprika, 1-2 teaspoon salt.

Pick crabmeat over carefully to remove particles of shell. Add salt and paprika. Marinate in French dressing. Chill thoroughly. Arrange on bed of crisp lettuce leaves in salad bowl and spread with mayonnaise. Decorate top with strips of pimiento and capers. This salad may be varied by the addition of one cup of olives, cut in cubes. Canned crabmeat may be used.

JELLIED SUPPER SALAD.

Two tablespoons gelatin, 1-2 cups mixed vegetables (peas, carrots, string beans, etc.), 2 hard-cooked eggs, 1-4 cup Heinz stuffed Spanish olives (sliced), 1-4 cup cold water, sliced chicken, 2 cups chicken broth.

HEINZ CONDIMENTS

Mr. D. (for Delectable) Dill, one of the Heinz 57—that's me! Socially I get around. When folks want an extra for dinner they call on me. No matter where they place me at the table, they say, I am charming. Maybe it's my elegant stature and shape—maybe it's my mild, distinctive character. Anyway, it's as well I'm not criticized because I am thin-skinned. (We Heinz Dills are quality folk.) Have me tonight for dinner and find out what a socially helpful fellow I am.

Till then!

green pepper and olives. Serve with Spinosa dressing.

CREAM CHEESE AND BAR-LE-DUC SALAD.

Two packages cream cheese, Bar-le-Duc or Heinz current jelly, 1-2 cup chopped almonds, mayonnaise.

Mash cheese. Mix to a paste with mayonnaise. Add almonds. Mix well. Line very small gum pans with mixture. Fill centers with Bar-le-Duc or the jelly. Cover this with more cheese mixture. Chill thoroughly. Remove from molds. Arrange on crisp heart leaves of lettuce. Serve with ananpy dressing.

EGG AND ANCHOVY SALAD. Six hard-cooked eggs, 1-4 teaspoon paprika, 2 tablespoons celery (finely chopped), 15 anchovies.

Remove egg yolks and mix with celery, paprika and enough mayonnaise to moisten. Mash three or four anchovies and combine with egg-yolk mixture. Refill whites, using pastry bag if possible, and arrange two halves watercress or shredded lettuce. Put an anchovy on top each half. Serve French or anchovy dressing.

Dressing recipes which are called for in the recipes above are given herewith:

FRENCH DRESSING.

Foundation No. 1.

One-half teaspoon salt, 1-8 teaspoon paprika, 1 teaspoon sugar, 1-4 cup Heinz pure vinegar, 1-2 cup Heinz pure olive oil.

Five ingredients—mix the salt, sugar and paprika together. Add vinegar and oil—beat thoroughly. Note: Plain French dressing is the only dressing in which we marinate salads. To "marinate" means to mix the salad ingredients in French dressing until every portion of them is well coated, and then to let them stand in a cold place for about one hour.

A faster way is to put ingredients in a screw-top jar and shake well. Keep in refrigerator and shake well each time you use.

ANCHOVY DRESSING.

Add ingredients below to Foundation No. 1 recipe.

Two tablespoons finely chopped anchovies.

CHIFFONADE DRESSING.

Add ingredients below to Foundation No. 1 recipe.

Two tablespoons chopped parsley, 1 hard-cooked egg, chopped, 2 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce, 1-4 cup cooked beets, chopped.

PIQUANTE DRESSING.

Add ingredients below to Foundation No. 1 recipe.

One-half teaspoon mustard, 1-2 teaspoon onion juice, 1-8 teaspoon Heinz Worcestershire sauce, 2 drops tabasco sauce.

ROQUEFORT DRESSING.

Add ingredients below to Foundation No. 1 recipe.

Four tablespoons crumbled Roquefort cheese and mix thoroughly.

SPINOSA DRESSING.

Add ingredients below to Foundation No. 1 recipe.

Two tablespoons capers, one teaspoon chopped parsley, 1 tablespoon chopped Heinz stuffed olives.

TARRAGON DRESSING.

Add ingredients below to Foundation No. 1 recipe.

One hard-cooked egg, chopped very fine. Use Heinz Tarragon vinegar for this dressing.

PARISIAN DRESSING.

Add ingredients below to Foundation No. 1 recipe.

Two tablespoons chopped green pepper, 2 tablespoons chopped celery, 2 tablespoons chopped red pepper, 1-2 tablespoon chopped onion, 1-2 tablespoon chopped parsley.

MAYONNAISE DRESSING.

Foundation No. 2.

One teaspoon Heinz prepared mustard, 1-8 teaspoon pepper, 1 egg, 1-2 teaspoon salt, 1-8 teaspoon paprika, 1-2 cup oil.

First mix the dry ingredients (salt, pepper, paprika) and the mustard, then add the egg and beat well, using egg beater. Add oil very gradually (by teaspoons at first) until 1-2 cup is used, beating all the while. Now add one tablespoon vinegar and beat in well, then add more oil, thinning (as the mixture thickens) with remaining vinegar until all of both is used, beating continuously.

INDIAN DRESSING.

Add ingredients below to Foundation No. 2 recipe.

One-quarter chopped Heinz chow-chow pickle.

SNAPPY DRESSING.

Add ingredients below to Foundation No. 2 recipe.

Four tablespoons Heinz tomato ketchup, 1 tablespoon Heinz Worcestershire sauce, 2 drops Heinz pepper sauce.

1-2 cup oil.

COOKED SALAD DRESSING.

Foundation No. 3.

Three tablespoons sugar, 1 teaspoon Heinz prepared mustard, 1 egg, 1 teaspoon salt, 1-2 tablespoons flour, 3-4 cup of milk, 4 tablespoons Heinz pure vinegar.

Be sure to mix in order named (sugar, salt, mustard, flour, egg, milk, vinegar) and to blend thoroughly after adding each ingredient. Cook over hot water, stirring constantly until thick. Add 1 teaspoon butter, blend thoroughly. Cool it and you have a wonderful cooked dressing.

Heinz 57

I believe that Heinz cooked Spaghetti has helped more housewives out of pantry-predicaments than any other food I can think of. I get so many letters from ladies who say, "Thank Heinz for this hurry-meal!" You see, it's all ready to heat and eat—a feast in no time at all! Just made for hasty suppers, on-the-spot schoolyard lunches, quick snacks late at night.

A good idea is to keep a few tins on hand—an ever-present help when time is short.

Don't think Spaghetti can't be exciting to eat, as well I know 57 ways to serve it, and every one delightful. Drop me a line and I'll send you a grand little book all about it—"57 Ways To Serve Spaghetti." Free, too!

TOBACCO BUYERS RAP MARKET PACT

Farm Officials Discuss Difference of Views of Two Leaf Groups.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 21.—(AP)—The public hearing on the proposed marketing agreement for flue-cured tobacco today turned into closed meetings of buyers after it developed they objected to the terms of the pact and were drafting counter-proposals.

Farm administration officials sat in on the meetings of domestic and export buyers. The domestic buyers outlined a tentative proposal which was taken under consideration by administration officials.

It would bind the larger domestic buyers to pay prices close to parity for the remainder of the marketing year up to June 30, but the flue-cured would be based on consumption of flue-cured by the manufacturers over the last few years.

On its face, the proposition sounded good to farm officials, but they said they wanted to do a little research before they accepted it, especially to find out how much tobacco would be bought.

Growers complained that the larger domestic buyers had paid parity prices for the better grades of tobacco they acquired in the past but that the real problem was the lower grades and the tobacco exported.

BANK OFFICIALS HIT BY SENATOR COUZENS

Lawmaker Accuses Bankers of Having Knowledge of Weakness.

DETROIT, Sept. 21.—(AP)—Continuing his promised presentation of evidence which he charges he was "prevented" from placing before the now-closed Detroit bank jury investigation, United States Senator James Couzens in a public statement today declared that certain officers of the closed Guardian National Bank of Commerce knew in September, 1931, that the solvency of the bank was "doubtful."

The senator also took issue with Judge Harry B. Keidan, who sat as the one-man grand jury which investigated the closing of the Guardian National and the First National Bank-Detroit, in regard to the judge's finding that the two banks were solvent when they closed.

"I have a letter from John N. Daly, a former assistant vice president of the Guardian National Bank of Commerce, the senator's statement read, 'pointing out that his suspicion of the solvency of the Guardian Detroit Union Group, Inc. (the holding company) was first aroused in September, 1931, when he received a telephone call from a vice president of a Cleveland bank which carried a very large account with them.'

"The vice president stated that at a dinner the evening before, the national bank examiner of this district had made the remark that both groups in Detroit were 'busted' higher than four kites. He (Daly) immediately discussed this with Robert O. Lord, president of the Guardian group, and Don Valley, vice president. Valley checked with this vice president and confirmed his statement. In October, 1931, while attending the American Bankers' convention at Atlantic City, Daly suggested to Lord and Valley that they and he make a trip to Washington and ask the comptroller of the currency to remove the examiner. Nothing was done at that time."

Export Buyers Balk.

The export buyers, who handle on an average more than one-half the flue-cured crop, balked at entering an agreement along with the domestic group. The export representatives said their situation was different and should be handled through a separate pact.

Farm officials tentatively agreed, provided the proposals by the export buyers were satisfactory.

A phase of the flue-cured export situation which has encouraged the farm officials is the low level of the dollar. This, they said, would enable the foreign purchasers to pay a price approaching parity and yet the actual cost of their tobacco in terms of gold would be relatively low.

A bit disappointed because of the delay, the administration group reported "progress" and related "determination to obtain higher prices to the growers."

Widespread Response.

The farm administration's responsibility for this has grown because of the response of the flue-cured tobacco growers to the production control campaign. Although final figures have not been announced, the farm tobacco section is confident that around 90 per cent of the producers have promised to cut their acreage or production next year as Secretary Wallace may decree.

Many representatives of growers and warehousemen were in the audience which met today for the public hearing. The gavel fell but immediately a recess was announced by the presiding officer. The same performance was repeated in the afternoon.

The hearing will be resumed even if another recess is taken at 9:30 o'clock tomorrow morning. If some agreement between the farm administration and the tobacco buyers has not been reached by that time, it is probable that the buyers will present their proposals for the record. The officials will take these and attempt to reach a compromise without delay.

SCOTCH PASTOR HELD BY TURKISH POLICE

ISTANBUL, Turkey, Sept. 21.—(AP)—Dr. Kerr, Scottish pastor of the Dutch Reformed chapel at Istanbul, arrived here today under police surveillance after he had been delayed at the frontier on his return from Europe.

Police detained him at Adrianople and ransacked his baggage, seizing weapons and a book about Lawrence of Arabia containing statements they alleged were unfavorable to Turkey.

ALL-BRAN RELIEVED HIS CONSTIPATION

Delicious Cereal Brought New Health to Mr. Bartholomew

We quote from his voluntary letter: "I had considerable trouble with my stomach. Digestion was out of the question. I got medicine which gave me only temporary relief."

"Then I thought of taking ALL-BRAN. I started eating a cereal dishful two or three times a day."

"It has been over a year now since I ate that first dish of bran, but from that day to this I have had the pleasure of enjoying the proper functioning of the digestive organs."

"Thanks to ALL-BRAN, I still eat it regularly and like it better all the time."—Lester Bartholomew, Cadillac, Mich.

Constipation is usually due to lack of "bulk" to exercise the intestines, and vitamin B to promote elimination. ALL-BRAN supplies both, as well as iron for the blood.

The "bulk" in ALL-BRAN is much like that of leafy vegetables. Certainly this food is more natural than taking harmful patent medicines. Two tablespoonfuls daily will overcome most types of constipation. With each meal in chronic cases. If not relieved this way, see your doctor.

Chaplin Denies Plan To Cut 'Hitler' Whiskers

HOLLYWOOD, Cal., Sept. 21.—(AP)—It may be just a clever publicity "gag," but anyway it has Hollywood laughing.

Charlie Chaplin, of the abbreviated mustache and baggy pants, received the following cablegram today from Arthur Kelly, United Artist representative in Berlin:

"Tremendous stir in Germany by article appearing in Paris Midi that Chaplin is removing his mustache now that Hitler has assumed same."

The film comedian's friends said he had seen references to the similarity between his and the German dictator's mustache, but had given them little notice. However, he cabled Kelly promptly:

"I wish to positively deny I had any connection with or knowledge of press report in Paris paper or elsewhere regarding removal of my screen character's mustache."

"Such rumors are absolutely without foundation and must have originated from some unknown source over which I have no control."

"Kelly," express my deepest regrets to those concerned."

GIVE MARX FILM

FOR LEGION BENEFIT

"My pleasure," says Groucho Marx in "Horse Feathers," one of the brothers' old but decided hits. "I'm eating crackers in bed—but right now I'll take a glass of beer."

This famous show will be put on again in Atlanta, and those who have seen it before will want to see it again. Those who haven't seen it have something to look forward to. The picture will be shown Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the Paramount theater, and the proceeds will go to the American Legion.

Groucho Marx, as Professor Wagstaff, becomes president of Huxley College for the avowed purpose of helping his son Zeppo get his diploma. Zeppo has been there 12 years, and hasn't made the grade, indicating that the youth is a trifle backward.

A college widow and other types are introduced, and all the Marx brothers take part in one of the most successful comedies ever shown on the American screen. Here is the complete cast:

Zeppo...Zeppo Marx
Connie Bailey...Thelma Landau

FAIR MOTORCADE
ENTRIES TO CLOSE
THIS AFTERNOON

With more than 50 automobiles already entered in the Southeastern fair's goodwill motorcade, which will leave Atlanta Saturday morning at 8:30 o'clock to touch at 20 Georgia towns to deliver the message of the 1933 Southeastern fair, entries for the motorcade will be closed this afternoon at the Atlanta Motor Club offices, it was announced. Indications point to a procession of nearly 100 automobiles, Mike Benton, president of the fair association, stated Thursday night.

Live stock entries increased Thursday, exceeding all expectations. A herd entry of aristocratic cows from Dick Hull's Irvindale dairy farm did much to swell the list of the blooded milk stock class. Present entries in the cattle show promise a display of more than 200 prized and pedigreed stock, while the swine exhibits will house almost that many choice porkers, it was stated.

Prized oil, crayon and charcoal portraits and landscapes will take their place along with other ribbon winners in the liberal arts building at the fair this year. A large space has been set aside for the High Museum of Art where a valuable display of fine pictures will be exhibited, and where students will sketch and paint during the fair.

Reservations for space in the liberal arts building indicated a complete sell-out and prospects for more elaborate and more educational displays than ever before erected in the spacious exhibit building were evident Thursday, Virgil Meigs, manager of the fair, stated.

Confused Defendant Laughs At Reichstag Arson Trial

Why Teethina Makes Babies Well Quicker

had been searched for arms before he entered the building. Six red-robed judges hurled questions at Marinus Van Der Lubbe, the principal defendant, but his replies were some times incoherent, and often he laughed. "Why do you laugh?" he was asked. He shrugged his shoulders and replied: "At the trial in general." The defendants, every one of whom faces the loss of his head if he is found guilty, were: Van Der Lubbe, 24, said by the authorities to be a Dutch communist; Ernst Torgler, 42, former communist floor leader in the reichstag; and Georgi Dimitroff, Blagoi Popoff and Waseil Tanoff, Bulgarian political refugees. The indictment, as read by the presiding officer, Wilhelm Buenger, charged them with "having attempted partly and co-jointly in one and the same continued act to overthrow the German constitution by firing the reichstag with malice afore-

ARTIE H. SMALL JR. RITES THIS AFTERNOON

Funeral services for Artie H. Small Jr., widely known insurance man of Atlanta, who died Wednesday in Savannah from injuries suffered in an automobile accident several days ago, will be held this afternoon in Macon, his former home. Mr. Small, who resided at 1251 Peachtree street, was severely hurt when his light car was sideswiped by a truck trailer on the Savannah-Brunswick highway. He was the son-in-law of Captain J. W. Barnett, former chairman of the state highway board. Mr. Small was special agent of the Southern Fire, the Baltimore American and the National Liberty companies, operated by the Home Insurance Company, with offices in Trust Company of Georgia building. He was a graduate of the University of Georgia. Surviving him are his wife, Mrs. India Barnett Small; two children, Artie Small III and Miss India Small; his father, A. H. Small Sr., of Macon; a sister, Mrs. Andrew Lane, of Macon, and several aunts.

thought, as preliminary to starting an insurrection. Further charges of attempting to fire buildings in Neukolln and the former kaiser's palace in Berlin were brought against Van Der Lubbe. Moving the phrase concerning forcible overthrow of the constitution to primary importance in the indictment was taken to indicate that all communist activities in Germany may be brought under investigation. The reichstag fire was described as being intended only to give the signal and to create a favorable atmosphere for an uprising, long planned. The first day's session was devoted mainly to the examination of Van Der Lubbe, the questions being pointed in an attempt to prove that he was shiftless, that he had served jail terms in several countries for minor offenses or resisting authorities and that he had harbored criminal tendencies from childhood. The witness entangled himself repeatedly, even replying "yes" and "no" to the same questions. When the judge asked him if he had engaged with others in political conversations he said "yes," but when he was asked whether they talked about politics he said "no." He refused to answer other questions and seemed interested in almost everything but the fact that he might pay with his head if he is convicted.

In Georgia's Fields and Streams By H. A. CARTER

BIRD COLLECTING AGAIN. I was informed recently by a very reliable individual that 400 scientific collectors had been deprived of their permits for the taking of birds, nests and eggs, in the state of Florida. Such a step is heartening, indeed. When commercial collectors, some of whom collect on order while others collect and hope for orders, are denied the privilege of killing your wild life and mine, I feel like giving forth wild cheers of enthusiasm. What specimens bring the best prices? English sparrows? Absurd! An egret is worth something. What about pileated woodpeckers? Good, but ivory-bills are better. Indeed they of small mammals. That would involve the sacrifice of his gun—that implement of virile manhood that flatters the ego—for the most part, and substitute for it the back-breaking labor of carrying traps, bait, and specimens for many a mile. You can't make me believe that anyone who is collecting birds for a living is going to begin work on the needed mammals when the danger to the future of the bird clan is shown him. I have talked with too many professional collectors to be able to have any faith in their altruism. This is a matter calling for ironclad law, and such a law is not impossible of realization. Witness the migratory bird treaty act, which was the most stupendous piece of legislation ever designed for the protection of wild life. Let each applicant for a collector's license show proof of advanced work in the zoological sciences, and proof

Students Call Off Parade of Protest

Students of Boys' High and Tech High schools who want home work abolished if classes are to be held as late as 3:10 o'clock in the afternoon bowed to "home work" of another variety Thursday and called off their dogs of war.

The parade of protest which was to have materialized today will not be held. Somewhere in the background are the Parent-Teacher Associations of the two schools, which Thursday interested themselves in the situation. It seems that the parents agreed to keep the situation well in hand, at least until the principals of the two schools, H. O. Smith and W. O. Cheney, could confer with the board of education.

Meanwhile, student leaders announced they would hold their protesting cohorts in restraint until school authorities decided whether to shorten their work day or shorten the work. They intimated that if their request was not granted they would unleash their dogs of war again next week.

Blanket Weather Is Forecast Today

Cooler early today, but warmer as the day progresses, was forecast Thursday by the weather bureau.

The minimum today is expected to be 55 degrees, or 2 cooler than Thursday morning. The maximum today is expected to be 85 compared with Thursday's 80.

The weather experienced a sharp change to fall conditions, the low temperature having dropped 15 degrees since Wednesday. There was no rain Thursday and none in sight, the bureau announced.

N. C. & ST. L. FIGHTS ORDER FOR TRAINS

Road Cannot Stand Expense of Locals, Service Board Is Told.

Business troubles of one of the south's large railroads, the N. C. & St. L., were reviewed before the Georgia public service commission Thursday as the railroad urged that it not be required to restore two local trains between Chattanooga, Tenn., and Atlanta, which were dropped because of lack of patronage.

Charles Barham, vice president and traffic manager of the Nashville, Chattanooga & St. Louis railroad, told the commission that since 1921 there had accumulated a deficit of $25,000,418 in the railroad's net operating income, as concerns what it should have received on the basis of a fair return on its investment.

The hearing was on a petition of citizens of Calhoun and several other northwest Georgia towns for restoration of trains four and five, which were discontinued late in 1931, by authorization of the commission.

Barham said if the two trains, one each way, were restored, their losses would have to be charged against income from other sources and "unfortunately, passenger and other revenue assignable to passenger service in 1932 was $1,864,117, which service it cost us $2,616,000 to provide."

The witness said the building of a paved highway by the state along the route of the Western & Atlantic, the state-owned railroad which is under lease to the N. C. & St. L., had facilitated motor bus, truck and private automobile competition with the railroad.

He said the "short-haul passenger business is gone" from the railroad, because of the inroads on rail business caused by use of private automobiles for transportation.

M. L. Johnson, of Cartersville, state representative of Bartow county, said "the railroads don't seem to realize they should bear their burden of the depression."

The commission took the case under advisement after hearing from Barham during most of the day. Numerous exhibits were introduced, one of which showed the salary of the president of the N. C. & St. L. at $1,687.50 a month, two vice presidents and a general manager at $1,012.50 a month and a controller at $675 a month.

Barham said he felt the $1,687.50 salary of a man charged with responsibility of handling a property valued by the company at more than $100,000,000 was reasonable.

The commission had docketed several telephone rate hearings for Thursday, but the railroad case took more time than it had expected, and only one, the Commerce Telephone Company, which operates at Commerce and Jefferson, was heard from. Others will be heard Friday.

Reviewing the Shows

Ingenue at Erlanger Has Delightful Role

Nannette Sargent, ingenue with the Peruchi Players at the Erlanger theater, gives a delightful performance this week in the three-act comedy, "Take My Advice." She is given the opportunity to portray a charming, average, wholesome American girl and she sends just such a characterization over the footlights. She is just the sort of attractive girl you'd like to meet and throughout the performance audiences greet her every entrance with a smile of sympathy and pleasure.

Other members of the cast have good parts, especially Gerald Rowan, Gordon Peters, Mrs. Peruchi, Klock Ryder and Mildred Peters. The play is cleverly written, the stage setting is extremely attractive and the entire production is of high entertainment value throughout.

This week marks the return of the Peruchi Players to the Erlanger theater, observed when they first came to the Erlanger and the steady growth in attendance proves that Atlantans are appreciative of this effort to provide the best in stage entertainment at prices as low or lower than those charged at other amusement houses in the city.

There will be three more performances of "Take My Advice," tonight, Saturday night and Saturday matinee, with plenty of good seats for all three available at the box office.

Fox Has Fine Musical In 'Too Much Harmony'

Another great feature, this time a love story with new songs, scores of musical numbers, and a cast that reads like a bluebook of screen comedy, comes to the Fox theater today. It is "Too Much Harmony," with Bing Crosby, ace of all the crooners, as the star and masculine half of the love interest and Judith Allen, as the feminine half.

The comic portion of the cast is headed by Jack O'Brien and Shamus O'Connell, as a dumb team of vaudeville hoofers, while other prominent names include Ned Sparks, Lilyan Tashman, Harry Kelly, Sammy Cohen, etc. It is a Paramount production, first big musical of the new year, said to exceed in fascination "College Humor" of 1933 or "College Humor," yet combining the finest features of both into a new type of light screen entertainment.

It is a story of performers in a great revue troupe and the way in which a love story between two of them works out satisfactorily, despite a blond goldigger and a rival love. It is notable for original songs, chorus, dance and mass ensembles and for six new songs, any of which are apt to become outstanding hits as song and music. These are sung by Bing Crosby.

They are "It Had To Be That Way," "Boo, Boo, Boo," "Thanks," "Buckin' the Wind," "Black Moonlight" and "Then You Came Along."

Jimmy Beers, ace organizer of the south, contributes as his part of the new program a special arrangement of music from the operetta, "Blossomtime," while the short subjects continue the high standard set by this theater ever since it came under the control of R. R. Wilby and E. E. Whitaker assumed the management.

JAPANESE EARTHQUAKE CAUSES HEAVY DAMAGE

KANAZAWA, Japan, Sept. 21.—(AP)—Heavy property damage was believed done today in Noto peninsula by an earthquake which shook western Japan. The tremors continued for three minutes here.

Only one death and two serious injuries were reported, all at Nanao, but communications were disrupted and only meager reports were received here.

GOLD HOARDERS' LIST IS REDUCED TO 284

WASHINGTON, Sept. 21.—(AP)—The justice department said today the number of known gold hoarders had been reduced in the last week from 342 to 284 with an accompanying drop in the total amount from $1,515,588 to $1,467,182.

Some 217 of the hoarders were said to have distributed the holdings among members of their families and intimate friends in an effort to evade the law which prohibits one person to have more than $100.

Spencer Tracy Jailed With Gallagher's Auto

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 21.—(UP)—A man who gave the name of Spencer Tracy was arrested today on a charge of having tried to start an automobile belonging to "Skeets" Gallagher, actor.

Arresting officers said the man was so belligerent that it was necessary to put handcuffs on him in order to take him to the county jail. Later he was released on payment of $20 bail.

Officers identified the defendant as Spencer Tracy, the movie actor, and said he had created a disturbance in Hollywood after he had tried to drive Gallagher's automobile. Tracy was so unruly, police said, that they found it necessary to overpower him in order to take him to jail.

Another Accident List Shows Need of Insurance Protection

"Seven burned to death after high-way crash."
"Ninety in southeast die of accidents."
"Two motorcyclists badly hurt in crash."
These are some of the headlines appearing in Monday's issue of the Atlanta Constitution of August 21. They are just a few of the accidents that occurred in Atlanta and near-by vicinity.

This is not a news story of the disasters, but a warning—that you, too, may be on the casualty list today. You cannot avoid accidents—no matter how careful you may be. You never know what the other fellow is going to do. Whether you are a motorist, or a pedestrian, whether you live in the city or in the country, the ever-mounting accident wave is a daily menace to you.

Why not protect yourself against the financial want that usually attends accidents? Why not safeguard the comfort and future of your wife and children? You can do it at a cost within the means of every man and woman in this section.

The insurance offered you through The Atlanta Constitution is issued by the North American Accident Insurance Company, of Chicago, Ill. This company, during the last several years, has paid to Constitution subscribers and members of their families over $160,000.

The insurance is offered to subscribers and immediate dependent members of a subscriber's family between the ages of 15 and 69 on the one subscription going into the home at the small registration fee of 20 cents with application and 10 cents per month thereafter in addition to the subscription price, or $1 each per policy per year in advance, to subscribers who live in Atlanta; and to subscribers outside Atlanta and suburbs the rate is $1 per year per policy in addition to the subscription price.

The policy The Constitution offers you provides for payment of sums ranging downward from $10,000 for travel, $1,000 for auto and pedestrian deaths resulting from certain specific accidents, heavy sums for permanent injuries, and $10 weekly indemnity for total disability resulting from accidents set forth in the policy, which is at the rate of $43.33 per month. All this for the small fee, as stated above—just about 2 1/2 cents a week, and it is offered to old and new subscribers alike.

In sending application for insurance, the applicant must state name in full, give age and occupation, and if beneficiary is desired the full Christian name of beneficiary must be given and relationship of same to the insured.

TEXAS SHAREHOLDERS SCORE MANAGEMENT

A committee of Texas Corporation shareholders, several of whom represent interests which have been identified with the corporation since its inception in 1902, have issued a circular letter to the corporation's 90,000 stockholders, expressing their concern at recent developments in connection with the management and asking that a special meeting of stockholders be called for October 24.

The committee specifically charges that three directors representing the "Latham group" and five employee directors controlled by this group now completely dominate the management of the corporation; that the "Latham group" and the employee directors own less than 2 per cent of the outstanding stock of the corporation; that they used their power to elect one of their number president of the corporation and another chairman of the executive committee; that this action was planned in secret without the knowledge of other directors and stockholders; and that when proxies were asked for the annual meeting last April no intimation was given to the stockholders that important changes in management were contemplated.

70TH ANNIVERSARY OF BIRTH OBSERVED BY CLARK HOWELL

Included in the group of telegrams were messages from fellow editors in many large cities and from press associations with which Mr. Howell has been associated in his nearly 50 years with The Constitution.

Mr. Howell spent the day at Highlands, N. C., but there was little to mark the day save the messages from his friends.

JERSEY TO HOLD NEU FOR KILLING OF SHEAD

Authorities Determined To Try Confessed Slayer Before New Orleans.

JERSEY CITY, N. J., Sept. 21.—(AP)—New Jersey authorities intend to keep Louis Kenneth Neu in this state to stand trial for his confessed killing of Lawrence N. Shead, Paterson theater manager, they said today.

Neu is wanted in New Orleans for the murder of Sheffield Clark, of Nashville, Tenn., which he also confessed.

Superintendent of Police George R. Eyer and Chief of Detectives John Brogan, of New Orleans, are on their way to Jersey City, where they will request Neu's extradition, but Captain Brady said, "There's not a chance of their getting him."

His composure unbroken, Neu is occupying a cell in city prison, where he will remain until Saturday morning when he will be set in the charges on which he was arraigned today as a fugitive from justice in the murder of Clark and the theft of Clark's car.

In a near-by cell was Harold Parks, the 19-year-old Zion Hill (Pa.) youth who became involved in Neu's troubles when he "thumbed" a ride with the slayer about 45 miles outside Philadelphia yesterday. Parks is booked as a disorderly person.

In the woman's prison is Eunice Hotte, 25, the buxom New Orleans waitress who was driving north with Neu in the stolen car, lured by his promise to show her the bright lights of Broadway. She is held as a fugitive from justice.

WAYCROSS, Ga., Sept. 21.—(AP)—It's worth $25 to the Waycross city commission to know who "gammed up the works" in the city's new police motorcycle.

The commission bought a new motorbike for the guardians of the law. The officer riding the machine parked it in front of police barracks.

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 21.—(AP)—Two men and a woman held by Jersey City, N. J., police were formally charged today in connection with the slaying in a hotel here Sunday of Sheffield Clark Sr., Nashville, Tenn., business executive.

The trio were arrested in Jersey City yesterday.

UNIVERSITY OF GEORGIA REGISTRATION BEGINS

Large Freshman Class Seen as Students Pour Into Athens.

ATHENS, Ga., Sept. 21.—(AP)—University of Georgia officials today began registration of what appears to be one of the largest freshman classes in the history of the university, faculty members said.

Estimates are that 600 persons will be registered when records are checked on Saturday, final day for registration. Tonight "freshman week" will officially begin with a dinner at Denmark hall, which all first year men are required to attend.

At the same hour a dinner for first year women students will be held at the dining hall of Co-ordinate College.

The graduate school, the college of arts and sciences, the college of agriculture, the co-ordinate college, the Peabody College of Education, the school of journalism, school of commerce, school of pharmacy, school of home economics and law school.

BATTALION REVIEWED BY RETIRING SERGEANT

SAVANNAH, Ga., Sept. 21.—(AP)—The colonel and the major were there, but it was John A. S. Ranitz, master sergeant of artillery and with 23 years of active service in the Georgia national guard, who reviewed the battalion.

The ceremonies marked the retirement of Sergeant Ranitz. His own outfit, the service battery of the 11th field artillery, was to make an event of it. But when the proper man arrived there was the band, Batteries C and E, battalion headquarters and regimental headquarters battery—in fact, the entire battalion.

Sergeant Ranitz was presented with a cup in recognition of faithful service. Colonel Sheffall B. Coleman, regimental commander, made the presentation.

Roads, bridges, towers, telephone lines and dikes for fresh water ponds will be constructed and $3,500 of the fund will be used for building a special type patrol boat for enforcing the migratory bird law along the Georgia coast.

Representatives of the biological survey said the island is ideally situated for a game and bird refuge and could be developed extensively.

Thomas, of Macon, was burned to death while his mother and aunt fought vainly to rescue him. The boy was playing in the cotton house near the home of his aunt, Mrs. G. C. NEGROES CONVICTED ON PERJURY CHARGES

Father, Son, 9, Sentenced to 10 and 4 Years in Murder Testimony.

CUSSETA, Ga., Sept. 21.—(AP)—Early Barker, negro, and his son, B. C. Barker, 9, were convicted of perjury here today after they testified certain officers of Chattahoochee county had coached them to give false testimony against a Muscogee county officer charged with murder.

Early Barker was sentenced to 10 years in prison and his son to four years.

The Barkers testified at the preliminary hearing of L. M. Houser, former convict warden of Muscogee county, that they saw him shoot T. J. Davis Jr. to death. Davis and Mrs. Theresa Roberts Holmes were found dead on a highway near here.

B. C. Barker testified at his trial today that Deputy Sheriff John B. Miller said "He was going to blow my brains out if I didn't say I saw Mr. Houser shoot Mr. Davis."

His father testified he had been threatened by Sheriff Jim McGlaun and by Miller and that McGlaun had told Miller "Make him talk with a seven-pound strap."

Miller and McGlaun both testified the negroes' stories were untrue and Sheriff McGlaun said there had never been a strap in his jail. They said they had not coached the negroes on any story and that neither had been threatened.

Houser was exonerated of the slaying by the grand jury recently.

Last week alone, 12,700 people told us

"Higher anti-knock" . . . "more power" . . . "quicker starting" . . . that is what motorists are telling us about the new and better Good Gulf Gasoline.

They have tried it themselves . . . and they like it!

In just one week 12,700 of these motorists sat down and wrote letters telling us about their experiences with Gulf's great new motor fuel. And here is what some of them said:

"Made the knock in my motor disappear like a magician's handkerchief!" . . . "Power? Oh, boy! It takes me up hills like a shot out of a gun" . . . "Fired at the first touch of the starter" and "As smooth a pick-up as you ever saw" . . . That's what they are saying about Gulf's latest and greatest achievement . . . That new and better Good Gulf Gasoline!

Try it today. You'll get more power, more miles and more value for your money! . . . Stop where you see the "sign of the Orange Disc."

Delinquent Taxpayers Face Loss of Protection

HUNTINGTON WOODS, Mich.,
Sept. 21.—(AP)—With only $1,845.25
in the treasury to last until next July 1 and a 72 per cent tax delinquency, the city commission has given delinquent taxpayers their choice of paying up by October 1
or doing without police and fire protection thereafter.

As the tax list stands now, 127 households will be placed under the police and fire departments' black list
with the passing of the deadline.

The largest number ever called here
in an off-year primary.

One contest was recorded when Warren Leak, incumbent second ward councilman, charged fraud in that race and a decision on the contest is expected Saturday afternoon. The committee delegated the subcommittee of the democratic executive committee to consider all evidence and handle the matter. Leak got 404 votes and his opponent, Howard C. Mc-Cutcheon, former councilman, 465, the official count showed.

No change in any race was recorded in the official tabulations Thursday from the unofficial results as published Thursday morning by The Constitution.

Four aldermen were nominated and one runner was recorded. A half-dozen councilmen were selected in contested races and another runner set there; a member of the board of education was selected in the contested races, as well as election of nine of the 13 members who will compose the new democratic committee.

The democratic committee Thursday,
after hearing a petition filed in Leak's behalf by Sam D. Hewlett, attorney, gave Hewlett until noon Saturday to amend his petition and the executive committee, which will hear the contest, set a 1:30 o'clock Saturday afternoon as the time at which the contest will be heard.

Runovers set for Oct. 2.
All runovers will be held Tuesday,
October 3, under a ruling of the subcommittee of the executive committee.
Entry lists close at noon Tuesday, September 26. Entry fees will be $100 for aldermen; $5 for councilmen and $10 for executive committee runovers.
Only the two high vote getters in each of the runner contests are eligible to run.

Councilman Homer C. Foster and I.
Glover Hailey, seeking the aldermanic nomination from the ninth ward, were the only ones to be defeated. The third ward nomination and former Councilman Charles L. Chosewood, runner-up; H. L. Carroll and J. M. Barnwell high vote getters in the seventh ward executive committee race; Fred
P. Gibbs and S. C. Hornbuckle, high men in the ninth ward contest for the executive committee post; B. E. Cook and Tom C. Smith, leading executive committee candidates in the tenth ward, and Charles N. Walker and J.
Carlisle Smith, who led the ticket for
the executive committee in the thirteenth ward, are entitled to enter the runner.

Sunday movies got 7,574 votes while only 5,210 cast ballots against them,

4,995 votes were polled against it.

Alderman, the general manager of waterworks, and executive committee members hold office for four years,
while councilmen and board members
terms are three years each.

Open Sunday Bill Ready.

Councilman John A. White and Alderman Ed A. Gilliam planned Thursday to offer an ordinance legalizing Sunday baseball and movies along with other amusements at council's session, October 2. They decided not to await legislative sanction of such activities in Atlanta.

The following were nominated or elected (city officials were nominated and committee members elected) without opposition:
Councilman H. Turner Loehr, of the first ward; Councilman Joseph E.
Berman, fourth ward; Councilman
William R. Johnson, eleventh, and Horace M. Rantin, twelfth, and Commissioners H. Jack Penn, fifth, and Frank R. B. Smith, eighth; Arthur H. Scott, seeking the post as school commissioner from the sixth ward for which Mrs. Julia O'Keefe Nelson, incumbent, failed to offer; Charles Bergman, seeking the second ward, school post vacated through death of William C. Slate; Ed Cook, who is assured of the nomination (fill the third ward school commissioner's position left vacant by the late John T.
Davis; W. Zode Smith, general manager of waterworks.

Executive committee, unopposed:
Paul Gentry, first ward; G. C.
O'Neil, fourth ward; S. P. Windburn, eleventh ward.

Leak charged that minors voted in the second ward race; that more votes were counted than were polled
and otherwise attacked the tabulation showing him as a defeated candidate.
In his petition he said if a proper accounting of the votes polled were made he would be the nominee.

Holmes Joyner, second ward executive committee, asked the executive committee to go fully into the contest "for the vindication of the people of the ward and those who held the election."

Tom Smith, runner-up in the tenth ward executive committee race, attempted to withdraw and leave the ticket to Cook without a runner, but Dr. Samuel Green, chairman of the executive committee, ruled him out of order and said if he failed to qualify,
the committee, under the rules, would be forced to call another election in the tenth ward to fill the position.

Hailey issued a statement Thursday in which he invited supporters of Lyndon in the Wednesday voting to turn their votes to him in the run-over.

Green said only one precinct will be opened in each ward in the run-overs in order to cut the expense for candidates forced to participate in second races.

Buyers Bring Merchandise To Rich's in Spite of Strike

Mrs. James Rivers Hall, Miss Annie May Gallagher, Floyd Brandies and Miss Frances Uphaw, buyers of Rich's, who managed to get merchandise back to Atlanta from New York in spite of strikes up there. They had it packed in trunks and shipped. Photo by George Cornett.

Dress strikes may come dress strikes
may go but when Rich's ready-to-wear buyers go to New York to get merchandise they get merchandise. The merchandise in Atlanta in time for Rich's Harvest Sale, the outstanding merchandising event of the year, but they could not promise definitely.

But Rich's buyers, determined to get that merchandise in Atlanta for
The Harvest Sale, took no chances.
The Harvest Sale, took no chances.
"We'll take it with us," they announced.

No sooner said than done. Trunk
after trunk was packed with fall
fashions, loaded on the southbound
train and sped to its destination—Rich's.

The stupendous collections of women's and children's apparel bought by Rich's for The Harvest Sale has never been surpassed in the south. It is just one of the reasons why—with prosperity back—the Harvest Sale
bids fair to be one of the most successful events ever held by this progressive department store.

Elbert W. Dagnall, aged 87, died
Thursday afternoon at the Confederate Soldiers' home. He was born in

Mr. Dagnall served in the Confederate infantry during the war and

Eckener Invites Farley To Ride on Graf Zeppelin

WASHINGTON, Sept. 21.—(AP)—
Dr. Hugo Eckener, veteran commander of the Graf Zeppelin, today
pictured for Postmaster-General Farley the landing of his ship at Chicago's exposition in October, and got Farley's tentative promise to be a passenger.

"It will be a very interesting sight to see the thousands on that large field as you come to the earth," said Eckener, making with expressive hands a gesture as of a great dirigible slowly descending.
"I'll be there if I can—and I know Mrs. Farley would like it,"
was the postmaster-general's answer.

BOLIVIA USES $15,000,000 IN FIRST YEAR OF WAR

LA PAZ, Bolivia, Sept. 21.—(AP)—
The first year of the Grand Chaco war with Paraguay cost Bolivia $15,000,- 000, figures submitted by the government to the new session of congress reveal. Slightly less than $5,000,000 was spent abroad.

The 1934 budget sent to congress by President Daniel Salamanca contains an initial deficit of 12,384,799 Bolivianos (about $1,800,000), due almost entirely to extraordinary war expenditures, which the president desires congress to find means of covering from new sources of revenue.

NEW REVENUE CUTTER REPLACES 'YAMACRAW'

WASHINGTON, Sept. 21.—(AP)—
After 24 years of service, the coast guard cutter Yamacraw, with Savannah, Ga., its home port and part of the South Carolina and Georgia coasts as its patrol area, is to give way to progress.

The coast guard announced today a 300-foot revenue cutter, equipped with seaplanes, will replace the old Yamacraw, veteran of many a sea fight and run-runner chase.

No official announcement of the disposition of the Yamacraw was made,
but coast guard attaches here, several of whom have been detailed to the Yamacraw during their career, said they did not think the cutter would be placed entirely out of the service.
They explained she probably will be used as a harbor patrol boat or held in reserve at some port on the south Atlantic coast.

While the Yamacraw's headquarters are at Savannah, she frequently goes as far north as Beaufort and Charleston, S. C., and as far south as Brunswick, Ga., and some Florida points.

Council of League Will Convene Today

GENEVA, Sept. 21.—(UP)—In a political atmosphere as tense as Europe has witnessed since the World War, the seventy-sixth regular session of the League of Nations council convenes tomorrow in preparation for the League assembly next Monday.

Three major problems causing an air of suspicion and distrust faced the League on the eve of its sessions:
1. Critical political tension between Austria and Germany.
2. Unrest in France and England over armaments and the Austro-German crisis.

3. Agitation of Jews throughout the world to force the League to act against Nazi Germany's persecution of Jews there.

GEORGIA'S FIRST CHOICE

is Georgia's own low-priced car

Builders of dependability! A portion of the Georgians who work in Chevrolet's and Fisher's big Atlanta plants, located at McDonough Blvd. and Sawtell Road. This factory is one of the largest, most modern and up-to-date industrial units in the state. Its 1933 production will amount to $22,784,635.14.

Georgians buy more Chevrolets than all other low-priced cars combined because they know that a Georgia-built product is the best you can buy

Few people will be surprised to learn that Georgia buys more Chevrolets than all other low-priced cars combined. Georgians naturally prefer the products of their own state. Chevrolet is a Georgia-built product. Georgians naturally have more faith in local craftsmen. Chevrolet quality is guaranteed by the fact that 99% of the workmen who build these cars are Georgia citizens. Georgians prefer to spend their money where it will do the most good. The Chevrolet assembly plant is the only automobile assembly plant in the Southeast that is operating under NRA conditions as to hours of work and amount of wages. Chevrolet has shortened the number of hours of work... increased wages 20%, and salaries 10%... and greatly increased the number of its employees in the past few months. That's the kind of spirit Georgians like, and that is one big reason why Chevrolet's production in Georgia during the first seven months of 1933 exceeded the entire production of 1932 by over 7,000 cars and trucks.

But there is another sound reason. Like everybody else, Georgians want an up-to-the-minute automobile and the biggest value their money can buy. And on the basis of straightforward comparison alone, Chevrolet wins their preference. It's not only a local product; it is also the one best low-priced buy. Leave aside all other considerations, be guided only by the facts, and still you are sure to decide that Chevrolet is the low-priced car for you. And there's another thought to bear in mind: America feels as Georgia feels about the new Chevrolet. Chevrolet is so far ahead in national sales that no other car comes near it!

FARM CREDIT BODY IS SET IN MOTION

COLUMBIA, S. C., Sept. 21.—(AP)—Henry Morgenthau Jr., federal farm credit administration governor, today set in motion expanded financial facilities for farmers of the Carolinas, Georgia and Florida, and tonight discussed the administration's set-up with representatives of the four states. Approximately 200 public, officials, business and agricultural leaders assembled here for a banquet and the conference tonight. Among them were several United States senators, congressmen and representatives of governors in the third land bank district. Morgenthau put the management of the regional office of the credit administration temporarily in the hands of officers of the federal land bank of Columbia. The regional office embraces the land and intermediate credit banks and two newly organized units—a production credit corporation and a bank for co-operatives. Morgenthau announced former Congressman A. Frank Lever, of Columbia, had been elected by the directors as director of public relations for the four farm credit agencies. Morgenthau approved charters for the two new units of the administration here and designated Frank H. Daniel, president of the land bank; A. B. Merritt, treasurer, and R. R. Clarke, secretary, to operate the regional office until permanent personnel is appointed. The farm credit administration, he announced, is subscribing capital stock of $7,500,000 for the production credit corporation and $5,000,000 for the co-operatives' bank. The production credit corporation will make loans through local associations for crop, live stock and other agricultural production, while the co-operatives' bank will aid in financing co-operative associations in marketing farm products.

Held in Sailor's Death.

LONG BEACH, Cal., Sept. 21.—(AP)—Police said today that one of the patrons of the gambling ship Johanna Smith had confessed he shot and killed Norman Lorraine, seaman, aboard the craft last night.

Chicago Policeman Is Slain by Bandits

CHICAGO, Sept. 22.—(Friday)—(AP)—A band of five desperadoes held up and robbed two federal reserve bank messengers of three or four bags of currency early this morning and a few minutes later shot and killed a policeman while making their escape. The two bank messengers were robbed of an unidentified amount of cash when the five men, all of them masked, drove up beside them on Jackson boulevard between Clark and La Salle streets as the money was being transferred from the post office to the federal reserve bank. The policeman was brutally slain by the desperadoes, three of whom were armed with machine guns, when he stepped into the street to question them after their automobile had collided with another at the intersection. Momentarily flustered, the men quickly halted a passing motorist, G. W. Knowles Jr., of Suburban Park Ridge, and forced him from his automobile at the point of guns. Jumping into it they sped north in Halsted street and were soon lost in traffic.

Judges Begin To Pick Bible Game Winners

Thirty-five mail bags containing solutions of the Bible Game contest faced the judges Thursday following the close of the contest Wednesday at midnight. It is expected that the checking will be completed in two weeks and the winners announced. Some of the checkers in the picture are Mrs. T. E. Otwell, Mrs. E. Chambers, Mrs. W. A. Willingham, Mrs. R. Story and Mrs. E. Surratt.

GIRLS' ALARM BRINGS POLICE; NEGRO SLAIN

The screams of Miss Lucile Wingo, 21, of 194 Mills street, N. W., and Miss Ruth McBrayer, 16, who was spending the night with her, frightened a negro from their room about 4 o'clock Thursday morning. The negro ran from the house and a few minutes later was shot to death by Patrolmen Roper and Tuggle, who heard the young women scream and approached the house with drawn pistols. Miss Wingo told the police she waked about 4 o'clock and saw the negro sitting on the side of her bed. She started to sit up, she said, whereupon the negro attempted to strangle her and threatened to stab her with an ice pick if she resisted. She screamed, and Miss McBrayer, awakened by her cries, also screamed, with a result that the negro fled. The policemen, who were passing on Lovejoy a few doors away, said they intercepted the negro and that when he charged them with the ice pick they knocked him back and shot him when he came on again. They expressed the opinion the man was an experienced burglar and had committed several robberies in the neighborhood recently. The negro had not been identified late Thursday night.

Post Severely Hurt In Take-Off Crash

QUINCY, Ill., Sept. 21.—(AP)—Wiley Post, round-the-world flier, was severely injured when his plane, the Winnie Mae, crashed today at the local airport as he was taking off. Post was rushed to a hospital, where Dr. E. L. Caddick said his injuries were severe, but not critical. The Winnie Mae, in which Post flew around the world in seven days, 18 hours and 50 seconds, will have to be rebuilt. The crash occurred while Post was on a speaking tour, was taking off for Davenport, Iowa. Dr. Caddick said the flier suffered an extensive V-shaped cut on his forehead from the hair to each eyebrow. His shoulder also was injured, but apparently there were no fractures. Post was able to crawl unassisted from the plane in which he flew alone around the world and to survey the damage of his first serious accident. MISSISSIPPI U. LISTS 1,016 STUDENTS IN YEAR UNIVERSITY, Miss., Sept. 21.—(AP)—A total of 1,016 students have matriculated at the University of Mississippi for the session which started this week, it was announced by Lee Gaaney, business manager.

RECOGNITION OF SOVIET NOT DECIDED, SAYS HULL

Secretary of State Admits President Is Considering Matter.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 21.—(AP)—Secretary Hull today indicated to newspapermen that the question of formally recognizing soviet Russia had been under consideration by President Roosevelt, but stated that no time had yet been set for a definite decision. The secretary of state said conversations held in the past with Russian representatives and plans now going forward for an extension of soviet trade, should not be construed as the basis for a decision on recognition. Hull was questioned by newspapermen as a result of authority given Henry Morgenthau Jr., governor of the farm credit administration, to deal with trade matters affecting Russia, through which the administration hopes of dispose of around 2,000,000 bales of cotton and extensive supplies of other products. The secretary answered the inquiries with a smile, saying speculation as to recognition appeared to be arising with increasing frequency. He then stated, however, no definite time had been fixed for a fuller consideration of the matter by Mr. Roosevelt. If and when the question is taken up for decision, he said, there would be no reason for secrecy concerning the administration's actions.

3 ALWAYS LUCKIES PLEASE

Why do we say "Always Luckies Please"? Well, one reason is that every Lucky is made of choice, ripe tobaccos—the Cream of the Crop. Another reason—Luckies are always round, firm, fully packed—with no loose ends to sputter and spark.

Careful examination and inspection by over 60 precision instruments and 17 alert scientists guarantee unfailing uniformity. That's why Luckies draw so easily, burn so evenly—always mild and smooth. And that's why—"Always Luckies Please!"

Thompson, on Fourteenth street. Dr. Ellis Fuller, pastor of the First Baptist church, performed the ceremony in the presence of only relatives and a few close friends. The ceremony was very quiet because of the illness of the bride's grandmother, Mrs. S. J. Akridge.

Palms and other foliage plants were grouped in the living room to form an improvised altar and vases of pastel-shaded flowers were effectively arranged. Mrs. Pat Greer, of Buford, a friend of long standing in the bride's family, was in charge of the musical program.

Miss Lora Thompson, who acted as her sister's maid of honor, was gowned in pearly-blue rough crepe trimmed with kolinsky fur and worn with a chic black felt hat and other accessories in black. She wore a shoulder spray of Ophelia roses. Robert Northcutt Gilbert acted as his brother's best man.

The lovely bride, who was given in marriage by her father, John T. Thompson, wore a smart model of light-weight woolen in evergreen and Dundee green, and her smart little hat was of black felt. Her accessories were black, and she wore an exquisite spray of gardenias and valley lilies.

Following the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert left by motor for a wedding trip, the destination of which was not revealed. On their return, the couple will reside at 28 Slatk street. Mr. Gilbert is connected in business with the Citizens & Southern bank.

When Worlds Collide

By EDWIN BALMER & PHILIP WYLIE

WHAT HAS GONE BEFORE:

Two planets, Bronson Alpha and Bronson Beta, torn away from another sun, are approaching the earth. The world's most distinguished scientists are working with Dr. Cole Hendon, of New York, as members of the League of the Last Days. Their discovery, by photographs taken in South Africa by Professor Bronson, which are now in the hands of Dr. Hendon, is that the two planets are in such a position that they will collide with the earth in a matter of a few days. The discovery is so startling that it has caused a panic in the world. The world's most powerful nations are now in a state of confusion. The world's most powerful nations are now in a state of confusion. The world's most powerful nations are now in a state of confusion.

It now, you know. We can't suddenly stop caring about such things, when we find ourselves on Bronson Beta, unless we've at least made a start at downing selfishness here.

"You call it selfishness?" "I know it's not the word, Tony; but I've no word for it. Morals isn't the word either. What are morals, fundamentally? Tony? Morals are nothing but the code of conduct required of an individual in the best interests of the group of which he's a member. So what's moral here would not be moral at all on Bronson Beta."

"Dann Bronson Beta! Have you no feeling for me?"

"Tony, is there any sense in making more difficult for ourselves what we may have to do?"

"Yes, damn it. Tony burst out again. I want it difficult. I want it impossible for you!"

Wanderers from other places began to discover the camp. While they were few in number, it was possible to feed and clothe and even shelter them, at least temporarily. Then there was no choice but to give them a meal and send them away. But daily the dealings with the desperate, reckless groups became more and more ugly and hazardous.

Tony directed the extension of the protection of the camp. A barrier of barbed wire and even shelter them, at least temporarily. Then there was no choice but to give them a meal and send them away. But daily the dealings with the desperate, reckless groups became more and more ugly and hazardous.

The two remaining searchlights blazed out, one sweeping the woods before Tony. The glare caught a hundred men before they could drop, and Tony savagely held the trigger back, praying to catch them with his bullets.

Machine guns were spitting from the woods once more and both lights were blinded.

A rocket rasped its yellow streak into the air and burst above in a shower of stars. Unquestionably a signal!

A second rocket rasped up and broke its spatter of stars. Now the camp held its fire and listened. It heard—Tony heard, only a whistle, like a traffic whistle, or the whistle that summoned squads of attacking order.

A third rocket went up. "Here they come!" someone said; any Tony wondered how he knew it. Soaked in perspiration, Tony glared into the blackness of the woods.

Now machine guns in the woods were sweeping the camp under a shower of stars. The fire radiated from a few points; and as it was certain that the attackers were not in the path of their own fire, but were in the dark spaces between, Tony swept these with his bullets.

The gun bucked under his tense fingers. Anguished yells rewarded him.

Shouts drowned the yells of the wounded—savage, in diabolic shouts. There must be a thousand men on this bit of the front alone, more than all the men in the camp. Tony heard his voice having over the tumult: "Get 'em! Get 'em! Don't let 'em by!"

Tony's machine gun was overheating. A little light came from somewhere; Tony could not see what it was, except that it flickered. Something was burning. Tony could see figures at the wire barrier now. He could not reckon their numbers, did not try to. He tried only to shoot them down. Once through the fire that wire so weak that he could not see it—and that thousand with the thousands behind them would be over him and the men for weeks him, they would be over the line of older men behind; then they would reach the woods.

Tony's lips receded from his teeth. He aimed—savage, in diabolic shots, and watched it take effect as wind affects standing wheat. The attackers broke, and ran back to the woods. Men went in pairs to the tops of the buildings, and through loopholes began sniping at those who moved in the territory around the buildings.

Every one was "overmastered" by the same sort of rage which had possessed Tony. The reason for their existence had been to them a high and holy purpose. They defended it with the fanaticism of sects. They could not know that the flight of their planes to and from the Randall metal supply had indicated to the frantic hordes that somewhere human beings lived in discipline and decency. They could not know that the flight of their planes to and from the Randall metal supply had indicated to the frantic hordes that somewhere human beings lived in discipline and decency. They could not know that the flight of their planes to and from the Randall metal supply had indicated to the frantic hordes that somewhere human beings lived in discipline and decency.

One blazed out—and instantly became a target for a machine gun in the woods. For a full minute, the machine gun swung steadily, coolly back and forth, picking out of the night men's figures. Then the beam tipped up and ceased to move. The next moment the great glaring pencil was snuffed out. The machine gun in the woods had not the light crew first and then the light itself.

Other machine guns and rifles, firing at random but ceaselessly, raked the entire camp. Tony stumbled over friends that had fallen. Scientists, great men, murdered in the camp. A defending machine gun showed its spatter of flashes off to the right; Tony ran to it and dropped down beside the gun crew. He had to have a shot at them himself, as the machine gun barriers there was silence and it alarmed Tony far more than a continuance of the surrounding fire.

The siege relaxed to an intermittent exchange of volleys. At his machine gun station, Tony, suffering acutely from thirst, with six of his comrades lying dead near-by, fought intermittently.

Reinforcements came from the center of the camp—Jack Taylor and two more of the younger men.

"Hurt, Tony?" Taylor challenged him.

"No," replied Tony. "Who's killed in the buildings?"

Senators Clinch American League Flag as Yankees Loaf

NATIONALS BEAT BROWNIES, 2 TO 1, IN DECIDING TILT

Win Puts Joe Cronin's Boys Beyond Reach of New York Club.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 21.—(AP)—With a minimum of fuss or excitement, the Senators officially took charge of the American league pennant today by defeating the St. Louis Browns, 2 to 1, in a closely-fought game.

Although there had been little if any doubt for weeks that the Senators would be the ones to oppose the New York Giants in the World Series, it took today's victory to remove the New York Yankees' last mathematical chance of winning the championship. With 97 victories to their credit, the Senators can lose all of the six games they have left and still finish a game ahead of the Yankees. New York, idle today, has won 87 games and lost 55 with eight to go. Washington has lost only 49 games.

CROWD RUSHES FIELD.
The actual clinching of the title brought little to the crowd of 10,000, mostly women taking advantage of a special ladies' day. Heinie Manush ended the game with a brilliant one-handed catch of Oscar Melillo's deep fly with the tying run on base. There was a buzz in the stands as Melillo came up. It grew louder and as Manush speared the ball the crowd rushed on to the field. Manager Joe Cronin and his men ran for the clubhouse and the demonstration subsided after a minute or two.

The Senators looked like pennant winners all through the game, played before stands already being augmented for the World Series. They got only six hits off Bump Hadley, their old teammate, but they made them count. Lefty Walter Stewart, a former Brownie, was nicked for seven blows, most of which didn't count.

Washington took a one-run lead in the second inning when Fred Schulte singled, went to third on Joe Kuhel's base hit to right and came home on Bob Boken's fly to deep left.

BROWNS TIE IT.
The Browns tied the score and gave Stewart his only bid in the seventh. Bruce Campbell drew a walk and Oscar Melillo brought him home with a double to right center. But Melillo was caught at third on Ted Gullet's grounder and Melillo's single, which followed, was wasted.

Washington came right back with the winning tally and lost a chance to score a few more runs through some dizzy base-running. Kuhel hit a clean single to center and Boken took third and Sewell second but on the next play, Stewart's grounder to Levey, there was another mixup and Boken and Boken was tagged out.

Hadley went out for a pinch hitter in the eighth and Jack Knott batted the last inning for the Browns. ST. LOUIS AB. PH. WASH. AB. PH. the Crimson Tide was encountered limping. In past years Mr. Thomas and I have managed to do considerable damage to steaks, potatoes, bread, rice, chicken and chicken gravy—not to mention desserts. But Mr. Thomas was on a diet. And so we ate lettuce and tomatoes and talked a fine day's eating which began with waffles and continued on through to a steak cepes bordelaise and soufflé potatoes, with a café brûlé for dinner.

Only the New Orleans members are eating with their customary gusto. And one can't blame them. There are cooks in New Orleans. Cooks with patience to spend hours with sauces, making culinary poems of oysters and shrimp and duck and fish.

But it was interesting, nevertheless, to note that coaches at Tennessee and Alabama, the two pre-season favorites for the title, have gone on a diet before the season begins. It's quite a contest. To date both Thomas and Neyland have lost 14 pounds each and they have hardly begun to do any serious worrying.

And down in Columbus Judge Frank Foley has gone on a diet. The judge was encountered in Columbus' best-known tea room. (The judge is softening up. Time was when he would not eat in tea rooms.) He was eating lettuce and tomatoes. "I am in training for the Georgia-Auburn game," he said. "And tomorrow Jeff Kelly goes on a diet with me."

GEORGE HERMAN RUTH.

George Herman Ruth is to pitch the Yankees' final game against the Red Sox, which is, incidentally, the final game of the season.

There will be more than a little drama in this. It was with the Red Sox that the Babe began his major league baseball career—as a left-handed pitcher. And a good one, too.

And Babe still holds a pitching record or so—World Series pitching records. He was a pitcher in the series of 1916 and again in 1918. Had he gone on he would likely have been known as one of the greatest of left-handed pitchers. Instead of the greatest hitter of all times. And the most glamorous player of all times.

GRANDEST SIGHT OF THE DAY.

Positively the grandest sight of the day was seeing Wilbert Robinson, the Old Oriole, and Nap Rucker, the Old Robin, squared off before a huge platter of pickled pigs' knuckles and doing a great job.

1 in 1 losing pitcher, Hadley. Umpires, Dinnane and Ormsby. Time of game, 1:47.

GIANTS FOOLED ENTIRE LEAGUE, PLUS EXPERTS

Only One Writer Picked Them and Senators.

By Alan Gould.

Associated Press Sports Editor. NEW YORK, Sept. 21.—(AP)—The champion New York Giants came back to their own battle around today to receive the belated roar of the metropolitan crowd, still somewhat dazed by this season's rapid decline of the once-dominant Yankees and the equally startling rise of Bill Terry's side. It's an old saying that New York or any place else loves a winner. Win or lose under the old regime of John McGraw, the Giants always were the best drawing card in the National league, but it wasn't until the 1933 club hit the home stretch, lengths in front, that the crowds began to drift toward Coogan's bluff.

FANS SKEPTICAL.
They were frankly derisive in the spring when the Giants got away galloping. They were still skeptical in midsummer when it became apparent the team was in the thick of the fight to stay.

Even the so-called "experts" are convinced now. But Bill Terry won't let them forget the harsh things they said about the Giants' prospects at the second division last April.

"After the show is all over, we will give a dinner for the baseball boys and make them eat a lot of those words they threw at me and the rest of the club last spring," laughed the Giants' manager. "I'll have some fun."

The fact is only one out of 82 baseball writers, polled last spring, was rash enough to predict the Giants would win the pennant.

PICKED 'EM BOTH.
Not only did Charles (Mike) Houston, then on the staff of the New York Evening Post, name the Giants to cop the National league pennant, but he selected the Washington Senators to displace the Yankees.

The young man thus awarded a double crown for his psychic powers is now the sports editor of the Richmond (Va.) Times-Dispatch. Only five others participating in the Associated Press annual poll named the Giants to finish as high as third. Three were Philadelphia writers, Bill Brandt, Herb Jansen and Ross Kauffman. The others were Charles E. Parker, of the New York World-Telegram, and Will Wedge, of the New York Sun. For that matter only one Washington expert, John B. Keller, of the Star, selected the Senators to beat out the Yankees.

The consensus was that the Giants would wind up sixth, with the Pirates as pennant winners and that the Senators would finish second.

The consensus now appears to be that even if they did upset all this National league odds, the Giants can't beat the Senators, but their answer today was: "Why not?"

The Boston Braves of 1914 were much the same kind of an inspired club and everyone recalls what they did to the mighty Athletics. The Giants look forward to the World Series with the same confidence they faced every crucial test of their leadership within the last month. In turn they knocked off the Braves, the Pirates and the Cubs when many experts still were predicting or secretly expecting them to crack.

Remarkable pitching carried the Giants through to the pennant and pitching has nearly always been the dominant World Series factor.

"If Washington pitches Al Crowder against Carl Hubbell, the Giants will win the series," one of baseball's keenest leaders told me recently. "When Hubbell is right, I do not think any club in baseball can beat him. He is the keystone of the Giants' hopes."

Babe Will Pitch In Yanks' Final

NEW YORK, Sept. 21.—(AP)—Babe Ruth, who changed over from a pitcher to an outfielder some years ago when his legs were more limber and his bat more effective, is going back to pitching again—but just for one day. The Babe has asked and received permission from Manager Joe McCarthy to pitch the Yankees' final game of the season against the Boston Red Sox. He says he will be in there the full nine innings.

Pop Warner's Team Set for Gamecocks

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 21.—(AP)—Except for final decision on left-end, Glenn (Pop) Warner's first Temple University eleven is complete for the opening game against South Carolina on September 23.

Joe Zanin, former Bellefonte Academy star, but five other candidates have been selected in pre-season training and may get the call.

More interest is being manifested in this scrap than any held here in years. Knowles is well known to local fans and has never met with defeat here. Fans are anxious to see him in action against a really outstanding fighter. A former champion of the world and victor over such prominent fighters as Young Stripling and Jack Delaney in defense of his crown, the Astoria Assassin has one of the greatest records in boxing. A veteran of the game at 20 years of age, Knowles will be in line for big bouts if he can score a decisive victory over the former champion. For a man who punches as hard as the Rome fighter, such a victory is entirely possible.

Gilbert also announced that Frank Adams, popular Atlanta fighter and holder of the southeastern amateur heavyweight title, had been signed to appear in a special six-round bout on the supporting card. Adams, who recently turned professional, has kayeed five opponents with ease. Matchmaker Gilbert is casting about for a strong opponent who can give the local favorite some real competition and his opponent will probably be either Red Baker, of Lendale, or Lorie Wilson, of Savannah.

CASCADE ARENA.
George Romanoff and Sam Miller will headline an all-star wrestling and boxing card at the Cascade arena Friday night at 8:15 o'clock. Both Romanoff and Miller are finished wrestlers and will furnish the fans lots of entertainment. This match is for one hour best two out of three falls.

The semi-final brings together Charles Harbin and Allan Dunn. These boys will put up a good scrap, as they are to finish a match that was unavoidably cut short last week. Both boys desire this return match. There will be several boxing matches to complete the card.

WEST LAKE ARENA.
Gentleman John Mauldin meets Bob Rubble in the final match on the weekly program arranged for Friday night at West Lake arena.

"Whitney" Patterson, from Pantherville, is matched with Glenn Cowan in the semi-final.

Frank Remmell, "the butcher," and Jack McAdams, two of the cleanest wrestlers of local rings, will meet in the remaining match.

The show starts at 8:15 o'clock.

SKULL DRILL.
UNIVERSITY, Va., Sept. 21.—(AP)—The University of Virginia football squad spent most of the afternoon in blackboard drill and skull practice, with coach pointing out the mistakes in yesterday's scrimmage. Later three teams ran signals.

GOLF FACTS

Alex Morrison says: A player is always prone to yank the club away from the ball with his hands first, particularly when he is off his game.

He figures that if he can just get his hands and arms in motion he can overcome the tension in the rest of his body. Just the reverse is true. By moving his body first he can overcome tension. It takes a great deal of patience to do this, but you should always start your swing with some body action and then begin the windup of your arms and hands after your hands have moved past your right leg.

AUBURN OPENS SEASON TONIGHT

the big names in the Southeastern area speaking.

Seven members receive their baptism of fire Saturday and all but Washington and Lee, which meets West at Greensboro, Mountaineers at Charleston, W. V., are favored to win. Clemson plays Presbyterian, N. C. State receives Catawba, South Carolina and Wofford mix in Columbia. V. M. I. opens with Emory, and Henry, Hampden-Sydney furnishes Virginia its opening test, and V. P. I. plays Roanoke. All but the Generals' clash are home games for the conference teams.

Duke, North Carolina and Maryland await the following Saturday to get under way, the Blue Devils playing the opening conference game with V. M. I. at Greensboro.

MARYLAND SAD.
The pre-season rumors, including the coaches, have pushed V. P. I. and Duke, the most powerful eleven in their states last year, into the position of favorites. But South Carolina, with a veteran and husky eleven, and N. C. State, which will throw a backfield averaging more than 190 pounds a man into the fray, do not want for backers.

Then, too, North Carolina, Clemson, Virginia, Washington and Lee and V. M. I. figure to put better emphasis on the field than last year's. Some of them may easily become title contenders.

The saddest camp in the conference is Maryland's. While the coaches are shedding as much gloom as Gil Dobbie ever did.

All in all, estimates taken from paper—anything but a trustworthy barometer—indicate the fastest football in years will be played this fall in the district between College Park and Clemson.

BULLDOGS LOOK MUCH IMPROVED IN SCRIMMAGE

Squad Better on Offense But Is Weak at Times on Defense.

By Al Smith.

ATHENS, Ga., Sept. 21.—(AP)—The Georgia Bulldogs are the sort of players who profit from the bitter lessons of experience, for when the Bulldogs got their third consecutive scrimmage today they showed vast improvement over their previous work.

Even Coach Harry Mehre, who has a very critical eye, admitted that his squad did well during the hour spent in offensive scrimmaging today. However, Coach Mehre added a bit of pessimism when he declared that it probably wouldn't have been so good if the boys had been on defense. Defense has been the greatest weakness of the Bulldogs has displayed lately.

TWO ENDS SHINE.
Henry Wagon, sophomore end of great promise, and Alex Ashford, 150-pound sophomore end, were vastly standouts in today's scrimmage. Wagon, an understudy to Graham Batchelor at right end, has been coming along steadily. He should play a lot this fall. Ashford, though, was today's star. The little fellow played rings around Red Devil linemen who are twice his size. He drew approving comments from Coach Mehre all during the scrimmage.

Charley Treadaway, who is the Red Devils' left halfback, was a defensive star. He roamed all over the field, popping up at opportune times. A sophomore, Treadaway is expected to develop into a splendid back before the fall is out. Ted Vetter, lightweight guard, broke up some promising varsity plays himself.

Another tangle was added to the quarterback situation today when Sam Brown directed the first string into action. Brown had led the Reds until today. Jack Griffith directed the second varsity team that went into action. So far, Brown, Griffith and Leroy Young have been waging a nip-and-tuck battle for the varsity quarterback position. The fight isn't over yet.

SHI BUSY MAN.
Allan Shi, the sophomore who was shifted from guard to tackle yesterday, was on the first offensive team today. Shi was busily engaged in acclimating himself to his new position. The Macon boy should be a great help at tackle.

A full-time practice game is planned for the Bulldogs Saturday. In the meantime Coach Mehre will give them a light day Friday. Little rest work will be done tomorrow.

Thirty-nine candidates for the 1933 freshman football team reported to Coach Johnny Broadnax for the initial practice this afternoon. At least 20 more freshmen are expected tomorrow, when registration for freshmen continues. Coaches Weems, Baskin and Vernon Smith are assisting in coaching the yearlings.

Amateurs Battle In Fourth Round

The youngsters are all primed for the fourth round of the amateur boxing elimination tonight at the Cain Street arena. Bob Dillard, Decatur High school star, will meet Sam Cowan in the first bout. These two youngsters are about the hardest punches in the bantam class.

Austin Shirkie will give Kid Cowan, another member of the Cowan family, a chance to avenge the defeat Austin handed him last week. Little Tommy Stanford will tackle his hardest foe to date when he takes on Jack McDonald.

Paul Byrum, light-heavy, tackles Herbert Cronen, the Canton youngster. James Aycock will go against Fat Upton; Johnnie Walker, of Tucker, will tackle Buddy McMillan in other bouts. There will be around 18 bouts on the card. Promoter Buice awards robes to the winners this year instead of belts.

First bout starts at 8:30 o'clock, with a battle royal opening the show. Popular prices will prevail.

Smithies Meet Real Test in Game With Spartanburg Tonight

SOUTH CAROLINA STATE CHAMPS AGAIN POWERFUL

Big Crowd Expected for Game; Orr Will Not Start.

By Jack Troy.

Coach Gabe Tolbert last night was of the opinion that the handwriting is on the wall regarding Tech High's game tonight at 8 o'clock at Ponce de Leon park with the Spartanburg High school team, prep champions of South Carolina last year.

A very close game is expected. The Village Smithies were successful in repulsing the first invasion by a foreign foe, defeating Etowah by one touchdown last Friday night.

The Smithies have shown improvement in this week's workouts, but also received a setback in the form of an injury to Captain Orr, a tackle, who will be unable to start.

Orr is crippled but may get in the game. It all depends on whether he is needed. And indications are that he will be.

BACKS READY.

Norman Perry and Newlands, who scored the Smithies' touchdowns against Etowah, and other members of the starting team are in good condition.

There will be two changes in the backfield. Perry and Red Reeves will start. Perry was sent into the game late against Etowah and Reeves did not play.

Reeves showed much improvement in crashing the line the latter part of last season and should be of considerable aid to the Smithie cause tonight.

Drills this week have been devoted to bringing about better co-ordination and Coach Tolbert announced that teamwork, smoothness in the opening game, is much sportier.

The Smithies start tonight with the same team that opened against Etowah, with the exception of the two backfield changes, and the absence of Captain Orr in the line.

THE LINEUP.

The lineup includes Pittman and Cole, ends; Harrison and Hinson, tackles; Demetrios and Holcombe, guards; Oakes, center; Perry, quarterback; Dowling and Reeves, halfbacks, and Newland, fullback.

Scott, a guard, is one of the leading players in the Spartanburg line. He is great defensively and is potent in opening holes for the backs.

Russell Gives Plans For Army, Navy Games

Will Make Separate Trips to West Point and Annapolis; Team Travels 8,000 Miles.

By Jimmy Jones.

Lake F. Russell, the head football coach at Mercer University, came to Atlanta last night to see Oglethorpe play Newberry by way of a warm-up sprint for the several thousand miles of steel rails over which Lake will travel with his own team, the Bears, this fall.

"I wanted to see Harry Robertson's team play when my team wasn't playing them, so I wouldn't have to squirm around so much," Lake explained.

This reminds one that Coach Russell might as well get some relaxation while he can, for starting next Thursday, he is going to have to do most of his relaxing on the Russell revealed that he had decided to make two separate trips out of the successive games between Mercer and Army at West Point on September 30 and that with Navy the following Saturday, which is October 7, at Annapolis.

OVER THE ROAD.

"It's a lot of riding, I know, but the railroads gave us a splendid rate for four days of practice between the games and also four more days in school for the boys," Lake explained.

The original plan was to take in Army and Navy on the same trip, but that would have kept the players away from school a long time, not to mention their own practice field. The combined trips to the Point and Annapolis will call for something like 4,000 miles.

Following those two games, which undoubtedly represent about the biggest order a southern team has ever taken in one season, Russell will take his team to Birmingham to meet Birmingham-Southern; Greenville, S. C., to meet Furman; Chattanooga, Tenn., to meet Chattanooga, and Savannah, Ga., to play Clemson. There will be about 5,000 more miles of traveling. The Bears have only three games left. Gilbert Cox, follows: Ends—Sutton, C. Jones, Southard and Crawford. Tackles—Mahaffey, W. Jones, Henshaw, Taylor, Holt, Lancaster and Bissell. Guards—McAllister, Miller J. Scott, Boyd, Powell, C. Willard, Watterson. Centers—Bretz and Hodges. Backs—Tinsley, Littlejohn, W. Willard, Herring, B. Jones, Blanchard, Amick, McMillan and Sumner.

CROWD EXPECTED.

More than 5,000 spectators witnessed the Marist opening game Wednesday night and fully as large a crowd is expected out tonight.

One of the best prep games of the season is assured.

Wilton Garrison, sports editor of the Spartanburg Herald, will be here to cover the game for his paper.

RUSSELL FINDS KICKING ANSWER IN TOM PORTER

Bears Look Fine for Opener With Spring Hill.

MACON, Ga., Sept. 21.—A long quest, which at times appeared hopeless for Coach Lake Russell, appeared at an end today, almost on the eve of the Mercer Bears' opening game here Saturday with Spring Hill—he has found a reliable punter.

Tom Porter, a big sophomore fullback from Akron, Ohio, seems to be the answer to Russell's kicking problem. Today, as Wednesday, the hefty blond booted the ball regularly for 50 yards under the expert direction of Johnny Cimperman, who kicked as well for the Bears for three years.

It is highly probable that Porter will start against the Badgers, as Gerald McQuigg, another sophomore fullback who looked great in earlier practices, is still nursing leg injuries. Ernie Zinkow, fleet left halfback, is also applying liniments and may be replaced by Alf Davino or Bob Lee. The rest of the squad is in good condition.

Spring Hill arrives here Saturday morning with its highly-touted Charlie Traynor, triple threat sophomore from Savannah, and Jack Palmes, reported to be a super line punter.

The freshman squad, which plays Georgia in their first college game, as usual, also includes some other future varsity prospects. There are four boys from the G. M. C. championship team of last year, coached by Wallace Butts, including Dodo, a tackle, who has been shifted to end, and Bloodworth, a triple-threat back of the Pinky Walden type. Bainbridge (Ga.) High, coached by Dore Shelly, sent up Tyson, a tackle; Varner and Morris, backs, and Savannah High is represented by John Ellis, halfback.

Albany High sent Billy Smith, a back, and Griffin High, coached by Guard McMillan, a back named Jones.

Atlanta fans may leave on the 1 p. m. train today, see the game tonight and return the city by 7 o'clock Saturday morning, railroad officials announced.

N. C. State Will Start Biggest Backs Saturday

COLLEGE STATION, RALEIGH, Sept. 21.—State College's bone-crunching, 775-pound backfield, will be the object of interest of many a football fan when State meets Catawba College on Riddick field here at 2:30 Saturday afternoon.

Fans have heard and have read much about the big and powerful backfield State College coaches have whipped together and they will be here from all sections of the state to see the Steam Rollers in action.

Ray Rex, the largest of the "Big Four" and Bob McQuigg, the triple-threat halfback of the set, are the two players of the combination most fans are anxious to see. Rex, a 215-pound hummer, is one of the fastest backs in the Southern conference despite his weight. He gained national fame last fall when he stepped 101 yards with an intercepted pass against Clemson. McQuigg, one of the best field goal and extra-point kickers in the conference, has been moved this fall from the backfield to left half and many predict he will outshine any halfback in the state.

Don Wilson, 180-pound veteran, will be at quarter. He is the most experienced field general in the state and is believed to be the smartest. He ran the 1932 team and did an excellent job. Wilson can run and pass, having come to State with a great reputation as a high school halfback.

The right halfback post will be filled by John Bowyer, 195-pound sophomore, who was a whiz as a freshman fullback. Bowyer hits the line at a 10-second clip and is an excellent pass receiver.

The light or "pony backfield," headed by Captain Mope Cumiskey, State's captain and all-state fullback, will probably start the game, but the heavy set will get in action before the game is old.

Bike Races Set For Monday Week

Bicycle races for the amateur championship of Georgia will be held at Lakewood park Monday, October 2, as a special feature on School Day at the Southeastern Fair.

This will be the first time in 28 years that bicycle races directed by and under the sanction of the Amateur Bicycle League of America have been held in Georgia. The last races held in 1904 at Columbus were won by Bobby Walworth, who became the greatest bicycle racer of all time, winning the national championship for 15 years.

In 1928, at the age of 52, Walworth returned to the track at Atlanta and covered the mile oval at an average speed of 49 miles per hour, which time still stands as the track record.

Good Rate Today For Tiger Opener

A special round trip rate of $3 is announced by the Atlanta & West Point railroad for the Auburn-Birmingham-Southern football game at Montgomery, Ala., tonight in Cramp-ton bowl.

Atlanta fans may leave on the 1 p. m. train today, see the game tonight and return the city by 7 o'clock Saturday morning, railroad officials announced.

INCREASE IS SHOWN

WASHINGTON, Sept. 21.—(AP)—Average hourly earnings of employees in manufacturing firms reporting to the bureau of labor statistics increased from 42.3 cents to 48.5 from June 15 to July 15.

This was announced today by Secretary Perkins, who also said the average hour's work per week dropped from 42.3 to 38.6. The figures cover manufacturing industries and include, she said, a $12,000,000 increase in manufacturing pay rolls.

Miss Perkins credited the changes in hourly wage and hours of labor to

Under the blanket code dyeing and textile finishing wages increased from 11 to 49.7 and hours dropped from 35 to 36.3 while silk goods wages increased from 21.5 to 36.3.

The decreases in hours worked per week and the increase in hourly earnings over the same period," the secretaries said, "were correspondingly greater in numerous other industries."

Taking the average picture, "the average worker during this month received approximately the same weekly wage but had more time for leisure and personal advancement and additional workers obtained employment by the means of shortening the work week."

More than 1,150 of the exchange's 1,75 members have applied for membership in the new organization, the committee announced this afternoon.

The strong support accorded the movement, the committee explained, is evidence of the determination of a big majority of the brokers to dodge emergency taxes proposed by the government.

ALTIMORE, Sept. 21.—(AP)—G. O. Maynard, a hollow eyed, Washington baker, walked into the local police station here today and said to be arrested for forgery and carrying bad checks.

Maynard wanted to give himself up," he told the desk sergeant. "I can't sleep or eat any more. My conscience won't let me. Lock me up and perhaps I'll feel better."

FARMERS DEMAND WALLACE OUSTER

Farmers' Union of Iowa Also Advocates Inflation of Currency.

DES MOINES, Iowa, Sept. 21.—(AP)—A resolution demanding the resignation of Secretary of Agriculture Wallace was passed today by the Farmers' Union of Iowa.

A short time later Senator Louis J. Murphy told the farmers' convention that Wallace "is being made the goat" for things for which he is in no wise responsible.

The things for which Murphy indicated Wallace is not responsible include rising prices of commodities the farmer buys, without proportionate increase in the value of those he sells.

The convention also resolved in favor of inflation, with which Wallace has declared himself sympathetic. Murphy also pledged efforts toward inflation.

Inflation has been one of the dominant notes in the convention, Glenn B. Miller, president of the organization, having declared that unless the dollar is inflated in farm strike would be declared to "overshadow anything ever seen before."

Inflation, Refinancing. Murphy linked inflation with mortgage refinancing with the declaration that "farm mortgage refinancing must fail of complete relief without inflation. It is impossible to refinance inflated debt on deflated prices."

He disagreed with the convention's utterances when he urged support of the corn-hog reduction plan.

A resolution of the convention had condemned the reduction plan, calling for slaughter of nearly 6,000,000 hogs and the plowing under of much cotton, as "unchristian." Murphy replied: "I don't like price fixing—there's dynamite in it. But it can be tried now under the most favorable circumstances with hogs because there is an assured shortage of hogs if our farmers walk in step with the government."

Co-operation in the government's hog policy is sure to bring fair and rising prices."

Sides With Union. He sided with the union, however, in their demands for cost of production for farm products, another demand in their resolutions. "If the NRA has come to stay," he told the members, "I'm going to fix up a room for A. P. C.—Agricultural Production Cost. If the industrialist is entitled to cost of production, and the law says he is, so is the farmer."

Murphy declared he had laid the facts about farm mortgage refinancing in Iowa before Governor Morganthau and had told President Roosevelt under conditions in the state. The union had declared in another resolution that farmers had received no measure of relief from the farm credit administration.

Additional resolutions called on the national administration to "redeem its pledge to agriculture, urged payment of the soldiers' bonus; opposed further issuance of government bonds; urged abandonment of the federal reserve system, increase of income taxes, enactment of inheritance taxes, and opposed sales taxes."

BANDITS ABDUCT TWELVE PERSONS

Four Machine Gunners in Wild Flight After Robbing Bank.

HAYS, Kan., Sept. 21.—(AP)—Four machine gunners held up the Farmers State bank here, abducted 12 persons for a wild flight southward in stolen motor cars and escaped across the Oklahoma line after freeing the last of their hostages near Holywood, Kan., tonight.

While search by ground forces and an airplane was pushed for them, the robbers, who obtained only small loot, the cash outside the vault, changed swiftly from car to car, alternately adding to and subtracting from the list of the abducted.

A request for national guards to join the pursuers was made to Governor Alf M. Landon by A. J. Wiles, Ellis county attorney, who said the governor promised aid.

Eight hostages, including Miss Hilmaria Schmidt, 22-year-old bookkeeper, were marched out of the bank to the bandit car, but two stepped off as the machine left the curb, fired on by Professor James Rouse, of Fort Hays State College, from across the street.

Machine-gun bullets rattled from the rear window of the bandit car in response but the shots were wild. The bodies of three motor cars were punctured.

"I fired three times from a side door of the hardware store," said Professor Rouse.

S. W. Arnold, cashier and one of the hostages, was wounded in the leg, apparently by a bullet from the professor's rifle.

With four other prisoners he escaped when the robbers' machine collided with another near the city limits.

At that point the robbers compelled a passing motorist, Martin L. Carney, to surrender his coupe, in which the flight was continued with Miss Schmidt.

Near Vincent, Kan., the robbers entered the farm of Ed Wagner, seized his truck, loaded Wagner, his wife, baby and Miss Schmidt on it and resumed the journey.

Four miles south of the Wagner farm, a man driving a motor car was halted and one of the robbers, at the point of a weapon, entered the machine. Truck and car continued for 10 miles but the car's performance displeased the robbers. It was abandoned and its driver and the robber boarded the truck.

At an oil well near Holywood, the robbers unloaded all their hostages, seized a new car owned by Bert Crockett, oil well attendant, and continued south.

"It looks like we'll have to head for the Oklahoma line," Miss Schmidt quoted one of the robbers as saying. "They treated us all good," she said. "They even let us ride on the inside of the truck. One of the men was addressed as 'Jack.' That was the only name I heard called."

The four men, two carrying machine guns and two others pistols, entered the bank shortly before the closing hour of 3 p. m.

One went directly to the office occupied by Val Weigel, vice president and S. W. Arnold, cashier. At the point of a machine gun the two were compelled to go out in the lobby.

"The man seemed a bit nervous, as if he was a novice in handling a machine gun," Weigel said later.

All four robbers were attired in dirty overalls and wore masks. A time-lock prevented them from looting the vault. Bank authorities said they had not ascertained how much the men obtained.
